NLP partnered with UP-NCPAG for Public Library Leaders' webinar series

NLP Asst. Director Edgardo B. Quiros and Ms. Blesila P. Velasco, PLD Chief with the members of the working committee and participants of the PPLIC webinar-series.

The National Library of the Philippines, through the Public Libraries Division, in partnership with University of the Philippines - National College of Public Administration and Governance (UP NCPAG) conducted a public webinar series titled, Philippine Public Library Leaders' Conversation.

On August 15-19, 2022 the seminar kicked-off attended by all identified members of five (5) committees of the PPLLC - a group of selected public librarians whose goal is to help improve the services offered by public libraries by seeking alternative options and/or solutions to some of the pressing concerns/issues affecting the public library profession. The 5-day blended seminar-workshop, which is part of the series of activities to be conducted under the PPLLC project, provided the participants an overview on policy making, policy analysis, and context setting.

Professor Simeon A. Ilago, Associate Professor of the National College of Public Administration and Governance, University of the Philippines and the present Director of UP Center for Policy and Executive Development (CPED) gave his lecture on the Overview of Policy Analysis which aimed to teach the participants the basic understanding of policy and the policy process and provided a workshop on policy development in the policy analysis process. Groups were able to present their outputs on the second day of the seminar. On the third day, Prof. Ilago showed the possible ways to identify policy alternatives starting with reviewing past policies, guidelines, and applicable rules and regulations to see how an issue was addressed.

A Stakeholder Engagement and Consultation was the second part of the webinar series. Which was held on August 30-September 2, 2022. During these days Prof. Charlie E. Cabotaje, Assistant Professor of UP NCPAG discussed about the stakeholder engagement and stakeholder consultation and was followed by a stakeholder analysis workshop. This was followed by a lecture on Effective Infographics Creating on September 6 and 9, 2022 which gave the participants consciousness committees to establish and follow PPLLC marketing and branding.

And on September 19-22, 2022 PPLC went to Davao City for another seminar-workshop on Public Advocacy and Communication-Writing Draft Legislation, Resolution and Ordinance, Policy Brief and Position Paper. Atty. Mark Anthony M. Gamboa, EnP., Asst. Prof., UP School of Regional Planning presented a lecture on Drafting Effective Legislation, Resolutions and Local Ordinances.

Capping the activities of the Seminar-Workshop on Policy Development and Advocacy for the Philippine Public Library Leaders' Conversation (PPLLC), PPLLC members attended the Closing Meeting and Recognition Ceremonies held last December 1-2, 2022 in City Garden Suites Hotel, Manila. This final activity of the PPLLC aimed to:

-Present and discuss the final proposals, policies, and plans of each committee to the whole group after the series of offline revisions undertaken as a result of the learning acquired and feedback obtained from stakeholders during the Public Webinar Series

-Submit and sign the committee's final proposals

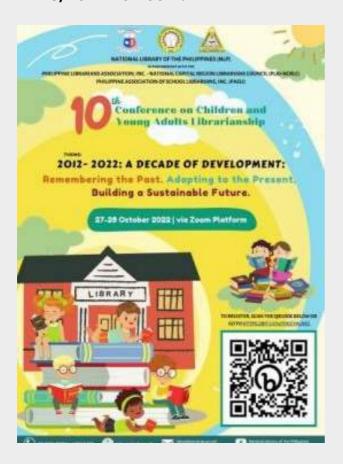

-Conduct a simple recognition ceremony for all members of the PPLLC Group

Gracing the events were members of the Oversight Committee and the two directors of the National Library of the Philippines, Director Cesar Gilbert Adriano, and Asst. Dir. Edgardo Quiros, who provided the Opening and Closing Remarks for the event respectively. A simple awarding ceremony was also held during the event for the winners of the 2022 Children's Librarian of the Year Award.

NEFLI COHORT II: BREAKTHROUGH OF JOURNEY

September 14, 2022 | 9:00am to 4:00pm | via Zoom

The National Library of the Philippines and the Network of Emerging Filipino Library Innovators (NEFLI) conducted the 3rd Convening of NEFLI Cohort 2 on September 14, 2022.

Attended by the innovators, mentors, comentors, learning facilitators, and organizers of NEFLI Cohort 2, as well as observers from various public libraries, the convening aimed to present the Collaborative Project Teams' (CPTs) breakthrough outputs, challenges and actions taken, and CPTs final project. Likewise, awards and recognition were conferred to deserving mentors and innovators.

The Network of Emerging Filipino Library Innovators (NEFLI) is a comprehensive three-year leadership training program designed specifically for public librarians across the country. Inspired by the successful INELI (International Network of Emerging Library Innovators) initiative under the Global Libraries Initiatives, NEFLI is spearheaded by the Public Libraries Division (PLD) of the National Library of the Philippines.

This program aims to unite public librarians and other interested participants, empowering them to harness effective and relevant solutions that will reinforce the leadership capabilities of public libraries in the Philippines. By focusing on economic, political, and socio-cultural development and integration, NEFLI seeks to strengthen the capacities of public librarians, enabling them to play a significant role in shaping their communities' intellectual and social landscapes.
